

VOL. LI. NO. 16, 253.

THE PEACE OF EUROPE.

LORD SALISBURY SAYS THE DANGER OF AN OUTBREAK IS STEADILY RECEDING.

THE PREMIER, IN AN ADDRESS AT GLASGOW, REVIEWS GREAT BRITAIN'S FOREIGN RELATIONS—A HOPEFUL OUT-LOOK IN THE EAST.

Glasgow, May 20.—In an address delivered in this city to-day Lord Salisbury, referring to the treatment of Hebrews in Russia and other countries of Europe, said: "The terrible persecutions of the Jews show that we must not count too confidently upon the progress of civilization."

Speaking of the political situation, Lord Salisbury said: "We are justified in believing that the peace of Europe will be maintained, though the decisions of great wars are not final, and appeals can be made from them. Sometimes these appeals are efforts to reverse such decisions. As every year passes, and as the terrible results of war become more evident, the danger of an outbreak recedes."

Lord Salisbury continued: "For many years an anxious part of the duties of the Foreign Office has been our relations with Mahometan communities, lest their crumbling and decay might cause a general disturbance. That danger is now decreasing, and in some parts has passed away. The Sultan of Turkey has devoted his energies to repairing the confusion into which his dominion has fallen; and has succeeded in so averting danger that the peace of Europe is no longer menaced from that quarter. (Cheers.) Still more hopeful is the revival in Persia, where there is such a desire for greater liberty, and such an increase of material progress, as to justify the hope that that Nation will never cause a conflict with Christian Powers. The revival in Egypt also is among the most wonderful events of this generation." (Cheers.)

Referring to the convention with Portugal, Lord Salisbury said that it was no easy matter to arrange that compact. England had to refrain from anything likely to injure a State which was linked with old recollections of kindness, and which must be regarded as an essential portion of the European body. On the other hand, England had to satisfy the people of Cape Colony, who could not understand why Portugal was allowed to claim on paper the annexation of a broad belt of Africa. If this belt had been held by the Anglo-Saxon race, added the Premier, it would have been led to civilization two centuries ago. The people of Cape Colony wanted Portugal to be disarmed, and to establish the Cape Colony to observe the precepts of international law, and could not ignore the claims of Portugal to certain portions of Africa. The convention gives England highlands on which white men can settle and work. The lowlands along the Zambesi were offered to Portugal, and can be worked only by people born there and having the blood of that country.

Referring to Egypt, Lord Salisbury held the convention to be carried to Victoria Nyanza would destroy the slave trade, through the abolition of caravan traffic. He closed his speech by praising Mr. Gladstone, and saying he admired in him the same uniformly treating foreign affairs without party feeling.

THE POSTAL CONGRESS OPENED.

DELEGATES FROM MANY NATIONS MEET IN VIENNA—TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED.

Vienna, May 20.—The International Postal Congress opened here to-day. The Minister of Commerce presided over the opening ceremony, and the subject of the Congress, namely the establishment of a scheme for linking together the civilized nations of the world in a single postal federation. Four committees were appointed to discuss preliminaries.

Washington, May 20.—The Universal Postal Union, the fourth quinquennial convention of which opened here to-day, is composed mainly of representatives of the postal administrations of the civilized nations of the world in a single postal federation. Four committees were appointed to discuss preliminaries.

On February 18 Mr. Wamamaker addressed letters to the several Australian colonies, expressing the hope that they would receive replies from the Postmaster-General of Victoria, New South Wales and New Zealand, thinking that the colonies named would be represented at Vienna.

NATALIE WELCOMED IN HUNGARY.

THE EXILED SERBIAN EX-QUEEN ON HER WAY TO BUCHAREST—BELGRADE STILL TURBULENT.

Buda-Pesth, May 20.—Dispatches from Semlin, Hungary, where Queen Natalie stopped yesterday, after being expelled from Serbian territory, say that great crowds of people gathered in the streets adjacent to the hotel at which the ex-Queen stayed, awaiting the opportunity to see her and make a demonstration of sympathy with her. Many of the leading women of the fashionable circle of Semlin visited Natalie at her hotel last night, and presented her with bouquets. They welcomed her to Hungary, and expressed their sympathy with her in her most recent troubles.

When the Queen prepared to leave her hotel at Semlin this morning, the excitement in the streets increased, and the appearance of the exiled woman was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. The progress of the Queen, from her hotel to the quay, on the Danube, where she was to take a special steamer for Belgrade, was a triumphal procession. The Queen embarked at 10 o'clock. From Belgrade she will proceed by rail to Jassy.

HEBREW POURING INTO GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, May 20.—England is becoming alarmed at the exodus of Hebrews from Russia, as large numbers of them are seeking refuge in Great Britain. "The Evening News" warns the authorities that if the "invasion" is not checked there will grow up in England and Wales a movement in connection with which the New Orleans feud would be a small affair. On the other hand, the manager of a "shelter" established for the reception of Hebrews here asserts that the number of destitute arrivals does not exceed twenty a week, fully nine-tenths of which number are respired to New York, Chicago, Boston or the British Colonies. When asked how these destitute Hebrews succeeded in gaining admission into the United States the manager said: "Oh, we take care to provide for them before they are shipped."

FOR ANOTHER NIAGARA FALLS BRIDGE.

Ottawa, May 20.—A petition has been presented to the House of Commons from Sir Donald A. Smith, W. C. Van Horne, R. B. Angus, T. J. Shaughnessy and G. M. Clark, of Montreal; G. R. Ham, of Boston, and R. M. Wells, of Toronto, asking for incorporation as the New York and Ontario Bridge Company, with power to build a railway bridge across the Niagara River, at or near the town of Niagara Falls, and to amalgamate said corporation with the company incorporated in the State of New York.

THE ARGENTINE'S PROPOSED NEW BANK.

FEATURES OF THE GOVERNMENT'S BILL CREATING IT—THE GOLD PREMIUM.

Buenos Ayres, May 20.—The Government has sent a bill to Congress creating a new National bank, which, it is proposed, shall take over the affairs of the old bank, and will have a capital of $200,000,000 in paper currency and $200,000,000 in gold. The Board of Directors of this bank is to consist of fifteen members, the majority of the board to be composed of natives of the Argentine Republic. The chairman is to be appointed by the Government. The new bank is to take over all the realizable assets of the old bank in order to pay the liabilities of the latter. The new bank will enjoy all the old bank's privileges, but it will not issue paper currency until the Government has arranged for a conversion or for a reduction of the present currency. The new bank places its gold capital in the conversion cause, receiving notes in return at the rate of two and one-half dollars in notes for every dollar in gold held in the cause.

MR. MORINE REACHES ST. JOHN'S.

BRINGING THE DRAFT OF THE DELEGATES' BILL, WHICH HE WILL URGES THE COLONIAL LEGISLATURE TO PASS.

St. John's, N. F., May 20 (Special).—Mr. Morine, who was commissioned by the other Newfoundland delegates in London to take charge of their draft of a bill temporarily enforcing the modus vivendi and the arbitration award, and to expound its provisions and urge its passage through the Legislature, has arrived here on the steamer Clasp. The bill has not been accepted by Lord Knutsford, who will put his Corcoran bill to defeat that measure in the Commons by the aid of the Liberal party. Lord Knutsford has been in bad humor with the delegates and hardly civil to them. There is strong opposition to the bill here; all turns on the line Mr. Bond, Colonial Secretary, takes. If the measure is rejected, a breach between Sir William Whitely, the Premier, and Mr. Bond will follow.

NO REVOLUTION IN PORTUGAL.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS OF TROUBLE—EFFORTS TO FORM A MINISTRY.

Boston, May 20.—Private cables say that there is a revolution in Portugal. Lisbon, May 20.—Perfect tranquillity prevails throughout Portugal. The monetary situation is improving, and the Ministry of Finance has not been attended with any display of public excitement. It appears that the withdrawal of Senhor Jannario from the task of forming a Cabinet was due to the fact that after he had completed the work of selecting the members of the new Ministry he found that there was a preponderance of Progressists over the Conservatives in regard to the question of future electoral affairs. Senhor de Serpa Pimental, a Minister of State, has been instructed by the King to form a Ministry.

ITALY AND THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

Rome, May 20.—It is understood here that it has been agreed upon, in principle, to prolong the Triple Alliance. It is also understood that the Marquis di Rudini has obtained from the other powers a diminution of Italy's obligations in case of a Franco-German war, and the promise that Austria will admit Italy's claims in Tunis whenever the equilibrium is reestablished.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE PROVES AN EXTREMELY FERTILE PRETEXT FOR SENSATIONAL AND CONFLICTING CLAIMS.

Some time ago it was reported that Italy had signed an agreement for a renewal of the Alliance, and yesterday it was stated that the principle of prolongation had been agreed upon by the Government at Rome. There was also a statement in regard to the admitting by Austria of Italy's claims in Tunis, which alleged claims are not thought of by the present Italian Cabinet. But the best evidence that nothing definite is known about the actual status of the Triple Alliance is the statement that the Marquis di Rudini has obtained from the other Powers a diminution of Italy's obligations in case of a Franco-German war. That has been agreed upon, in principle, to prolong the Triple Alliance, the text of which binds Italy to observe a friendly neutrality in case of a war between France and Germany, and to intervene only in case France shall be aided in its fight by another country. Such an obligation is already too much for the present Rome Government, which, unlike its predecessor, shares the friendly sentiment of the Italian people for France. The text of the articles of the Triple Alliance shows the extent of Italy's obligations toward her allies.

LABOR TROUBLES ABROAD.

Lisbon, May 20.—At a meeting of manufacturers to-day a permanent committee was appointed to deal with the labor crisis. Senhor Carvalho, formerly Minister of Finance, was made president of the committee.

THE AMERICAN MILLERS REACH LIVERPOOL.

Liverpool, May 20.—A deputation of the Liverpool Corn-Traffic Association met the American millers on their landing from the steamship City of New York to-day. The association will give a banquet in honor of the visitors to-morrow night.

THE CONGO STATE-PORTUGAL AGREEMENT.

Brussels, May 20.—The "Journal de Bruxelles" says: "The Congo State-Portugal agreement will be signed immediately. The Congo State territory is bounded by the eighth degree of south latitude and the right bank of the Kasai River."

QUINTON'S MANIPURI MURDERERS TO DIE.

Singha, May 20.—The Manipuris who killed Chief Commissioner James W. Quinton by thrusting spears through his body have confessed and have been sentenced to death.

NO SUCH LETTER RECEIVED FROM MR. BLAINE.

London, May 20.—"The Times" this morning says that the British Government has never received a letter suggesting a mode for the protection of seals, such as a recent Dailid-Dunlap telegram said Mr. Blaine wrote three months ago.

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD'S DAUGHTER ENGAGED.

London, May 20.—The engagement is announced of Katherine Lillian Arnold, only daughter of Sir Edwin Arnold, K. C. L. E., Editor of "The London Telegraph," to Dr. Hamilton Edward Earle, R. N., only son of Rear-Admiral Earle, of Lymington, Hampshire, England.

A RUMORED RUSSO-GERMAN AGREEMENT.

Berlin, May 20.—The "Kreuz Zeitung" says that Germany and Russia will enter into a commercial-political agreement on the basis of a diminution of corn duties.

PROHIBITION IN THE DOMINION HOUSE.

Ottawa, May 20 (Special).—The burning question of prohibition came up for its annual discussion in the House this afternoon, when a resolution was introduced declaring that, in the opinion of the House, the time had arrived when it is expedient to prohibit the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes. The question was debated until recess.

THE PERUVIAN MINISTER PRESENTED.

Washington, May 20.—Senator Del Solar, the new Peruvian Minister, was presented to the President to-day by Acting Secretary Ade, of the Department of State.

ELKS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS.

Louisville, May 20.—The Elks elected officers at the meeting of the Grand Lodge to-day. E. D. Hay, of Washington, was elected grand exalted knight; Frank E. Wright, of Toledo, Ohio, grand leading knight; Peter J. Rush, of Detroit, esteemed grand knight; and Dr. O. S. Sprague, of Rochester, esteemed grand secretary knight.

A MINER KILLED BY INDIANS.

Clifton, Ariz., May 20.—The report is confirmed that "Nat" Whittle, a miner on Blue Canon, has been killed by Indians. The Indians were in ambush close to his home and shot him twice through the body. The Indians are headed toward New-Mexico.

ment to the effect that, while the House sympathizes with the tender of the resolution, it is its opinion that the country is not yet ready for prohibition.

ELIETA RECOGNIZED BY THE KAISER.

Berlin, May 20.—Emperor William has formally recognized General Elieta Estrada as President of the Central American Republic of Salvador.

MR. GLADSTONE STEADILY IMPROVING.

London, May 20.—Inquiry at Mr. Gladstone's home to-day elicited the fact that his condition is constantly improving.

PRESS CENSORSHIP IN FLORIDA.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 20.—The House of Representatives to-day passed a resolution directed against the freedom of the press of the State, which resolution is preceded by a long preamble reciting criticisms to which members have been subjected by newspapers, and ends thus:

Resolved, That whenever it shall be represented upon this floor by any member that he has been misrepresented, and the newspaper alleged to have misrepresented him, the member shall be entitled to a hearing in the performance of his duty questioned, or his motives impugned by any newspaper to whose representations and correspondence he has been subjected, the courtesies of this floor, and who may have allowed themselves of the same, such representatives or correspondents shall be expelled from the House, and shall be excluded therefrom until the House takes proper action in the premises.

A striking feature of the resolution is that a member has only to charge that he has been misrepresented, and the newspaper alleged to have misrepresented him, to have its correspondent ejected from the House. The House passed the resolution without opposition, and it is asserted that members did not understand the full scope of its provisions. Practical tests of its efficacy or of the disposition of the House to enforce the resolution may be expected at almost any time.

THE NATIONAL BREWERS' ASSOCIATION.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 20.—The thirty-first annual convention of the United States Brewers' Association was called to order in Germania Hall this morning.

The bodies of John Smith and James Morris, the powder monkey, were sent to their homes at Peekskill and Sing Sing.

Angelo Stanziano, in his statement before the Coroner yesterday, said that he had no doubt that Angelo Centritto was blown to pieces by the explosion.

He said that Angelo Sperio and Angelo Tetoro, two of the men who escaped, told him that a few minutes before the explosion occurred Centritto was standing on the flat top of a building with a bundle of dynamite tied up in a bundle with a string. After the explosion took place Sperio and Tetoro went to look for Centritto, but could not find his body or any trace of it. All they could find was a pair of shoes, which they identified as belonging to the dead man, lying beside the railroad track.

Coroner Mitchell obtained a list of the men who were employed on the fatal car. This list, as near as possible, gives the number by which the men were known, and also whether they were missing, dead or had been found. The list is as follows: Peter Tetoro, No. 32; Giulio Perno, No. 33; dead; Vittorio Italia, No. 62, missing; Luciano Ralmerio, No. 65, dead; Tony Wilroy, No. 104, missing; Raphael Vandyll, No. 107, dead; Angelo Tetoro, No. 123, found; Angelo Delia, No. 129, dead; Angelo Centritto, No. 135, supposed to be blown to pieces; Frank Angelo, No. 136, found; Angelo Sperio, No. 130, found; Angelo Jigora, No. 140, dead; Antonio Tetoro, No. 141, found; Patey Cheche, No. 148, missing; Jimmy Cobora, No. 149, in New York Hospital; Joseph March, No. 153, missing; Masquaro Rud, No. 154, missing; Tony March, No. 155, missing; Mike Mingo, No. 156, missing; Angelo Tetoro, No. 157, missing; Angelo Tetoro, No. 158, missing; Angelo Tetoro, No. 159, missing; Angelo Tetoro, No. 160, missing; Angelo Tetoro, No. 161, missing; Angelo Tetoro, No. 162, missing;
